INDUSTRIAL LEADERS AMONG DIRECTORS.

JAMES W. ELLIOTT, His Life in His Works.

The Business Ruilders was founded a year and a half ago by James W. Elliott, who believed that building the man power of an organization should go hand in hand with financing it. He started his organization with fifty substant He has new force of more than 1,000, and occupies the 12th and 13th floors of the Knickerbocker Building.

fames W. Elliott is primarily a salesman, Hefore he was 20 he had sold goods in every State in the Union. His vausual ability as a sales manager is well known to sales executives throughout the country. He is writer of "Man Messates," which have been used by over 700 American industrial concerns to stimulate their sales forces. Every large institution in the United States is familiar with the products of his pen.

ADVANCEMENT AND OPPORTU-

His organization has been built up under his personal direction and inspiration, on a backs of merit. Success is achieved by any man who merits it. University graduates, corporation lawyers, college professors, telephone linemen, clerks, bookkeepers, work together and secure promotion on the basis of accomplishment.

EARNING WHILE LEARNING.

The selling of securities is the means through which executives are trained. The immediate carning power in commissions during the period of training is attractive. The average weekly checks of the men who are making good carry substantial figures—ranging from $75 to more than $100.

Call between 10 A. M. and 1:45 P. M. to-day, or between 7 and 8:30 P. M. Ask for Mr. Wells, 12th floor.
